OUR BELIEFS

we believe in food that creates a dining experience

Our food tells a story or more importantly means something to us and we endeavour to tell you all about it. Western Australia's produce is truly unique. We focus on our locality, our habitat and our landscape to source our ingredients and pay homage to the many years of growth and culture before us. We design food full of honesty and meaning and insist that we excite the diners with flavour, balance and creativity through our unique seafood focused dining experiences.

EXECUTIVE CHEF

———— Ben Jacob

Lagoon is lead by chef and owner, Ben Jacob. A focused and driven chef oozing high-end training, including experience in prestigious kitchens like Gordon Ramsay at Claridge's and Boxwood Cafe in London. He has a great appreciation for quality produce, sustainable techniques and using the local landscape as a larder to drive creativity and help evolve his food to portray his beliefs, dedication and passion.

BESPOKE

We like to do things differently, focusing on a unique dining experience where we do not provide menus for you to choose from. Instead we have a creative team who would love to discuss your event with you in detail to make it truly one of a kind.
